HIGHWAY REPORT:

*Skid paved Kent Switch

*Mini hoe will be here soon.

*Junk days was a success.

*$425.00 was paid for the scrap steel. Ken asked if the monies were ever received for the scrap steel that was picked up by Weitzman in the fall. William Young will call BLB to ask if the monies were sent to them or the Town and if so where it went?

*Ken checked into old tire collection. Car tire pickup will cost $250-$300 per ton any oversized tires will be $400 per ton and we have to deliver. Another place is $450 per ton and includes all sized tires and they will come and get them. Supervisor Young will write a letter to George Borrello regarding the tire issue and ask if there is any funding available. A lengthy discussion was had, but no decision was made. The Town Board would like to wait and see what George Borrello and DEC say.

Brenda Hendricks asked if the Town would like to work alongside of the Business Association regarding the walk path at the ball park. She would like to schedule a meeting to get a plan started. Also, take a look at the walk path by the Gazebo. Six concerts are scheduled for this summer. All will be held at the Ball park. Business Association have their own insurance for any functions at the Park.

COMMUNICATION:

*William Young asked what are the requirements for renting the Ball Park? He received a notice from NYMIR strongly discouraging any alcoholic beverages being brought in. It will be looked into for posting signs stating no alcoholic beverages or glass permitted.

*William Young reported the AUD has been submitted. The Wilmington file at the Hamlet office needs closed.

*Regarding the Sewer Project, the RCAP was approved. Nick and Matt sent reports to Tom Reeds office.

*William Young will call Sarah at Southern Tier West and have her update the website.

*Farrington Hollow Cabins are beautiful. William Young would like to schedule a date for the Board members to take a tour.

*Passed Dog Municipal Shelter Inspection Report.

*Per Dana, Runge transfer is now recorded.

*Dr. Lee's building is still in the works.

A discussion was had regarding Jason Pierce completing his application process and having his interview with the County. Rick will get this set up.

Rick reported on a NYMIR Playground Safety Webinar he attended. Jason will attend this week.

Rick suggested the firemen use the dry hydrant when using any Hamlet water.

Ryan Lepp will contact Dana regarding email addresses for each Town employee.

Motion was made by Bruce Hendricks to adjourn at 8:30 p.m. and seconded by Matt West, all in favor, none opposed.

Next regular meeting will be June 14, 2021 at 7:00 p.m.
